

William Lloyd Garrison Esq.
Care of Mrs E. J. Nichol Huntley Lodge
Redinboro
Immediate -

Newcastle we received a Letter from our Son saying he hoped to reach home on the Saturday so that Mrs Parker felt she should be there to welcome him
wishing you much happiness and hoping the visit to our Country will prove beneficial to your health

Believe me with very kind regards to you and your Son in which Mrs Parker joins

Faithfully Yours
Edward Parker

at our House -

It will be a great pleasure to me to welcome to my home one who shewed such kindness to my dear Wife when in your Country - Our Daughter is going into England on Saturday Week we should like you to see her Mrs Parker thinks she would remind you of your Daughter Fanny - We were sorry not to meet you at the Breakfast in many times —

We have been hoping to receive from your son a programme of your intended movements —

Mr Partier says that you shall have as restful a time here as you can wish, and while she intends you shall meet the choicest spirits in this neighborhood yet she will arrange that it shall only be for a couple of hours

J. W. L. G.

The Cliff,
near Dundee.

July 25: 1877

My dear Sir,

I write for my dear Wife, she sent you a Dundee advertiser yesterday by it you will see we are looking forward to your visit with great interest.
I can truly say she speaks of you every day.